Norwich Bulletin, Willimantic Office, 23 Church St. Telephone 105.

What is Going On Tonight.
Knights of Pythias, Natchaug lodge, No. 22, meets at 1 O. P. hall.

Chief Daniel Killourey was notified Saturday evening that an automobile belonging to George Avery of New London had been stolen. The car, a Hudson Super-six, had been left standing at the corner of Main and Birch streets, and when Mr. Avery came back to where he had left the car he found it had been taken. The police immediately began a search for the car but it was not found until Sunday. One of the policemen saw the car standing at the corner of Ash and Jackson streets, where it had been left by the joy-riders. Later it was found that seven young men were the guilty ones and they will appear before the court today (Monday).

About ten o'clock Sunday morning a person living on Pleasant street telephoned Chief Killourey that about twenty fellows were "rolling the bones" at the corner of Bridge and Pleasant streets. Chief Killourey was on the spot and succeeded in catching two of the group gathered around the game. They are Chester and Fred, who were taken to the police station and held until they could be taken to a local garage for repairs. Meanwhile the owners were spending the time in the old game.

Sunday the police of the city were stationed at West Main street and the lower end of Windham road to lay for speeders. It is the intention of Chief Killourey to stop all speeding within the city limits.

Saturday afternoon a pool room run by a man named Mazelle was entered by the police after a complaint by several people, and about twenty cents the proceeds of a gambling game were found. The dice, however, could not be found and after a reprimand, those at the pool room were allowed to go.

The number of voters made this year is far above the average for an off year. This was the statement of one of the men who had charge of the work in this city. When the list was completed it was found that 197 men and 20 women had become voters. The year that comes nearest to equaling this was 1915, when a total of 138 voters were made. Both political parties were out during the past few weeks to get voters and the list shows that the registrars are about equally divided between democrats and republicans. The city town elections are not far off and the contests for election are expected to be close. The could not be found and after a reprimand, those at the pool room were allowed to go.

At St. Mary's church Sunday Alfred Rivard, a local boy who is studying at Baltimore for the priesthood, assisted at the masses. Father Contois of Moosup, Father Jalvert of Baltic, and Father Bellefleur of Tatfield were present at the Forty Hours' Devotion service at the church and there will be special services at the church and 16 visiting priests are expected. During the afternoon confessions will be heard. The musical programme at the church Sunday was especially arranged by the organist. The new organ was dedicated last Sunday.

The Willimantic All-Stars were stamped by the Hendee Indians, Sunday, at Recreation Park. Errors by the local team proved costly and five of the seven runs scored by the visitors came in. The local team got their lone tally in the fifth when the boys won on a batting rampage. The fine pitching of Elmer of the visitors kept his team on this occasion, as it did in the sixth when the bases were filled with none out. The errors of the local team were mixed with spectacular plays and the crowd was kept in an uproar during most of the game. The score:

Hendee Indians	All-Stars
Ab 10 3 2	Ab 10 3 2
Miller 2b 4 0 2	Miller 2b 4 0 2
McCarthy 1b 1 0 1	McCarthy 1b 1 0 1
Walt 3b 1 0 1	Walt 3b 1 0 1
Reynolds lf 5 1 0	Reynolds lf 5 1 0
Wag 5 1 0	Wag 5 1 0
Streitz 3b 3 2 0	Streitz 3b 3 2 0
Maloney c 1 0 0	Maloney c 1 0 0
Finch 4 1 0 0	Finch 4 1 0 0
Totals 38 10 13	Totals 38 10 13

Rev. William S. Beard, director of the state campaign for raising $600,000 for the Connecticut State Memorial Fund, being raised by the Congregational churches of the country, made the address at the morning service at the Congregational church in this city Sunday. During the past week the campaign has been going on in Windham county and the county churches have pledged their amount, and in most cases have over-subscribed the sum allotted to raise. The speakers covered the churches in the remaining territory of the county and tonight (Monday), will bring the campaign to a close. The Congregational church of this city has been allotted $6,000 a share of the state fund and Rev. Harry McCready, pastor of the church, stated that the subscriptions received Sunday indicate that the church will go over the top in one year, instead of the five years the church has been given in which to raise the amount.

Sugar has at last arrived in this city. Friday evening a carload shipment of sugar consigned to a distributor arrived at the local freight yard and on Saturday morning was delivered to the merchants. The news of the arrival of the sugar, however, was not a great relief to the people, many merchants sold their entire supply during the day, dealing it out in two-pound lots. Some people bought ten pounds, but they were dealing in the cause of a good deal of the scarcity of sugar, was practiced by many a housewife, who for her entire family was planning to do. There was enough sugar in the city Saturday to supply each of the city's 14,000 inhabitants with a little girl was struck by a truck belonging to J. C. Lincoln Co. and driven by A. R. Handfield. Later in the afternoon the small son of Harold Lincoln was struck by a machine driven by Maurice Jordan. The child rolled beneath the car but was uninjured. Saturday noon an automobile driven by T. B. Smith of this city struck the small son of Mrs. Mary Shriar, of Main street, knocking him to one side and bruising his leg. In every accident that occurred it was claimed that the drivers were in no way to blame; but the children had run in front of the cars without looking to see if the way was clear.

The Boy Scouts met at the church house Friday evening at 7.30 with about twenty present. The scouts were given instruction regarding regulations for the coming year. Scoutmaster R. C. Ross advised the boys to study up and prepare for the contests for the coming year. The scouts are anxious that the library kept by the Stage Patrol be kept open this year so the scouts may be able to procure books. The scout officials are hoping to fill all vacant positions and have been directed to look into the matter. The scouts then held their patrol meetings.

The enrollments in James J. Sheehan, No. 19, American Legion, totaled about 200 when the Liberty Cottage on Main street was Saturday night at 10.30. The enrollment Saturday was the heaviest of any day during the week and the men in charge of the work were busy indexing the cards and giving instructions to the men joining. The following letter was received by E. A. Morris, secretary of the post from J. A. Hurley of the state executive committee, who has been watching the work in this city with interest.

Waterbury, Conn., Sept. 20, 1919. E. A. Morris, Secretary, Willimantic, Conn.

Fine work from Willimantic. Keep it up. Your city is doing better proportionately than any other its size in the state. Buttons are at a premium. Factories won't make them fast enough. Will rush some to you when they arrive.

Fifteen cans of fingerling trout from the state hatcheries at Windsor Locks arrived in this city on the 23rd instant Saturday morning. After the trout were distributed to the local sportsmen to distribute among the various streams of Windham county. The trout in each can numbered about 200. The cans were placed in automobiles and carried to the rivers and brooks. The men who distributed the trout were Austin D. Boss, Frank G. Gough, Albert French and Raymond P. Smith. Farmers of this section and city people who have raised their own potatoes this year report that the weather of the past few weeks has caused a great loss in the number of potatoes. The spuds have rotted and many are a total loss. Benjamin O. Southwick of the Hartford Post has arranged for the following suggestions for those who have the trouble: When the spuds have been dug, clean the dirt from them and lay them on dry floor and let them dry for two or three days. Those that have dried out sort the good tubers and throw the bad ones away. Those that are only bad in spots can be saved by cutting off the bad parts and dipping the rest in powdered sulphur. In answer to the question about the best way to store spuds, Southwick states that there is an equal chance either way, whether they are dug now or allowed to stay in the ground until cold weather.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM

The following is from a recent issue of an Atlanta, Ga., paper: Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Johnstone announce the marriage of their daughter, Hester Lillie, and Julian Lee Lipacomb, formerly of Winona, Miss., now of Atlanta, which took place Sunday afternoon, Rev. Dr. Fraser officiating. The announcement is one of pleasing interest to many friends. The bride, who is one of the most beautiful young women in Atlanta, is a graduate of Washington seminary, and completed her college course in June at Converse college, where she took a prominent stand both in scholarship and in the student organizations. She is a member of the E. D. society and the senior order.

Mr. Lipacomb, who is a great-nephew of the late Major William F. Slaton and a cousin of former governor John M. Slaton of Georgia, is a graduate of Bell Buell college, and served with distinction during the war with the Royal Air Force. In the Canadian service with the rank of Captain, he was a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and is an attorney and will practice law in Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Lipacomb left immediately after the wedding. The bride's father was an attendant at the wedding Wednesday of Miss Elizabeth Barksdale and Raymond Johnson, who were married from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Lipacomb will make their home for the present with the bride's parents.

The bride's father was formerly an agent here in the Danielson of the Danielson Cotton company plant and is now at the Danielson of the Danielson company, one of the greatest textile organizations in the south.

Rose of Lima council, No. 52, K. of C., which has been growing rapidly in membership since the summer, has another class of about 35 members ready to receive degrees. The council, now numbering about 120 members, has arranged for the opening of a hall, which will be fitted for use as a council chamber.

The annual flower, fruit and vegetable show was held at the Union Baptist church in East Killingly Saturday afternoon and evening and proved a great attraction for residents of that section. In connection with the show there was a sale of cake and refreshments, and King George Jacques servedchowder.

A number of the members of Wapack tribe of Red Men left here shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday morning on trail to the happy hunting ground at Stratford. One party filled the motor with this was scheduled to make the long run down from Bridgeport and return.

However, says the trolley cars will make no difference to most of the motor bus operators running lines out of this city. One line, to the south via Attawaug and Dayville, is well patronized and doing a good business and is likely to remain as a permanent transportation line, providing especially good service to all points in the vicinity, particularly Attawaug, which is not on the trolley line.

Gilbert Perry, son of City Engineer George Perry, left Sunday evening for Boston where he will resume his duties as a member of the Putnam Baptist church to the Ashford Baptist convention scheduled for Sept. 30 at North Ashford. Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Kent, Horatio Brown, Mrs. Ida G. Kennedy, Miss Anna Armstrong, Mrs. Clarence E. Pierce, and others, will be present.

During the past week the new sidewalks that are being laid in King street make a very fine improvement in that part of the city. The sidewalks will be completed in a few days.

A special appeal is being made for contributions to complete the $7,000 needed to round out the $25,000 fund for the extension of the Day Kimball school. All towns in this part of the county are being interested in the matter.

There was a beautiful display of fireworks during the early hours of Saturday morning, the aurora being of the rapidly shifting variety, and, at times, giving the sky the appearance of a burning sea of fire.

A funeral service for Dr. George V. Towne was held at his home in Pomfret Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. von Hulsing officiated. The service was attended by representatives of Masonic organizations.

Burial was in Thompson.

The public statement that two hogs that died of hog cholera were sold at retail in this city has aroused considerable interest. This matter will be cleared up in a few days.

JEWETT CITY
The New Britain section of a Hartford paper of Sept. 19, publishes a photograph of Miss Claire De Jardin, an army nurse, who volunteered overseas duty from that city. Miss De Jardin is a Jewett City girl and was superintendent of nurses of the New Britain General Hospital. Miss De Jardin is in New York waiting for her discharge.

The current issue of The Watchman-Examiner contains a most interesting article from the facile pen of John E. Phillips of this place, concerning the duties, privileges and accomplishments of the church scribe. In every line is discerned the characteristic wit and humor and sound common sense of the writer. Mr. Phillips is the senior deacon of the Jewett City Baptist church and has served as its clerk more than a quarter of a century.

Saturday evening Finn Opera house was crowded to see Tom Moore in Just For Tonight. Among the large audience were several young men and women who were one-time students at the Norwich Free Academy. They relate that Mr. Moore came there once and played in a game of ball, making friends with everyone he met.

"Are you having a good time?" inquired a man who came strolling down Grove street as four young men, operators in the quiet of the late evening, were lugging a little hut owned by the construction company doing work there on to the trolley track, where they were leaving it.

"Great!" said the boys.

"Well, have some more fun; carry that back again now!" said the stroller, who happened to be a special officer on duty where the street is all torn up.

"Yes, sir! Yes, sir!" said the young men as they hastened to do their work all over again.

In Congregational churches all through this section Sunday special appeals were made to the congregations to join their efforts in making the Pilgrim memorial fund drive the great success that it has been predicted for this year. The taking of pledges will proceed this week and early announcements are to be expected of churches obtaining their apportionment.

The jury will come in tomorrow (Tuesday) when the superior court will begin its week of business, with Judge Frank D. Haines presiding. Inmate in the penitentiary, Wednesday and Thursday and there probably will be a short calendar session Friday.

Mrs. Thomas McNair has returned to her home in Westfield, N. Y., after a visit in town with Mrs. Frank Wilcox.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church gave Lewis Aldrich a surprise party at the parsonage Saturday evening. The young man who was graduated from Norwich Free Academy in June, leaves this week for Boston to attend the dental school at Tufts college. His friends presented him a leather traveling bag. Games and music occupied the evening, and refreshments were served. Mr. Aldrich has been the secretary of the Epworth League and a very active member of the church.

Many who enjoyed the week's affair on Sunday afternoon brought home large bouquets of golden rod, purple asters and iron weed. The last-named flower which adds its deep purple hues to the color pageant of September, is often mistaken for an aster, but an inspection of the petals will easily demonstrate the difference. The New England aster, perhaps the most striking of all the thirty or so to be found in this section, is now in its best bloom along any of Griswold's county roadsides. A specimen picked Sept. 10 near the Canterbury station, was seven feet tall.
